Europa zu Gast in Werl

Schüler und Lehrer aus Italien, Zypern und Portugal sind derzeit in Werl zu Gast an der Walburgisschule. Es ist das letzte Treffen des EU-geförderten Projekts „Erasmus“, an dem die Grundschule teilnimmt. Dazu gab es am Donnerstag einen Empfang im Rathaus, wo Bürgermeister Torben Hörbrink Fragen zum Schulsystem beantwortete – auf Englisch. Gerade der Abbau von Barrieren, auch in der Sprache, ist eine Ziel des Austauschs. Zudem sei es „ein wichtiges Zeichen unserer europäischen Idee, die wir mit diesem Projekt transportieren“, sagt Konrektorin Sandra Zakaryan-Bürmann (Bericht folgt).
